

Mission

“...to provide the diverse community of students in the greater Rowan University region with high quality music instruction and performance opportunities that promote their continuing artistic growth and a lifelong appreciation of music.”

Values

We believe in a community-based music program that...

- provides a challenging and nurturing environment that helps students of all backgrounds reach their greatest potential
- is dedicated to excellent instruction and performance
- prepares students for continued music study
- instills the love for music both as a practitioner and a consumer

Ensembles

Rowan Youth Orchestra

The Rowan Youth Orchestra, now in its 36th year at Rowan University, is a full orchestra including all the major string, woodwind, brass and percussion instruments. Orchestra members are in grades 7-12 from schools throughout southern New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and Delaware. The RYO will perform two concerts in Rowan University's Pfleeger Concert Hall to showcase its musicians' talents and will have chamber music opportunities.

Rowan Youth String Orchestra

The Rowan Youth String Orchestra is for string players primarily in grades 5 and up! The RYSO will perform two concerts in Rowan University's Pfleeger Concert Hall to showcase its musicians' talents along with the Rowan Youth Orchestra.

Atlantic Youth Brass Band

Join Dr. Appleby-Wineberg and members of the National Champion Atlantic Brass Band in this brilliant and fun ensemble experience. This dynamic team will push your brass playing to new heights of musical excellence and change the way you play in your school ensembles. Come & learn the amazing art of brass playing in a true Brass Band!
