

Online Sessions for Teachers: Brazilian Music in the Classroom

Presented by:
Dr. Fabio Oliveira,
Head of Percussion,
Rowan University

Pricing:

$50 per session
$120 for all 3 sessions

Sessions:

Session 1: Brazilian Samba: basic concepts;

Friday: November 6th, 5:00-6:15pm

Session 2: Brazilian Samba: developing a learning

context; Friday: November 20th, 5:00-6:15pm

Session 3: Brazilian Samba: advanced concepts;

Friday: December 4th, 5:00-6:15pm

Description: This 3-session workshop for music educators will provide a detailed survey of musical elements found in the Samba musical tradition typical of the Southeast Region of Brazil, especially in cities of Rio de Janeiro and São Paulo. Participating educators will be introduced to Samba through singing and performing traditional songs & rhythms. Along with performance, each concept presented will explore practical applications and suggestions for incorporating classroom activities. Participants will learn about further resources including recordings, score repositories and method books.

Professional Development Credit available for all Rowan University sessions.

Registration link coming soon; More information here:

cpa.rowan.edu/rowancommunitymusicschool/waystostudy/onedayevents.html

Phone: 856.430.2697

Email: rowancommunitymusicschool@rowan.edu

Website: cpa.rowan.edu/rowancommunitymusicschool

Facebook: facebook.com/rowancommunitymusicschool